In describing this great array of overcoats this Fall, we feel like an amateur carving a chicken-we don't know at which end to begin!

The fabrics are wonderful - herringbones, diamond weaves, fancy coverts, and novelty creations that are the very poetry of design.

Notable models are the new short boxy coats, with split sleeves, slash pockets, button through front, self collar and skeleton interiors.

Other models are cut on shapely lines, with patch-and-flap pockets. self collar and just the proper modicum of self esteem.

Still others are the new flat-braided coats, and the new buttonthrough, silk-lined-andsilk-faced over coats. which will travel anywhere on their looks tells in next Sunday's Tribune of the wonderful opening in China for American enterprise.

It is a country of peace and order, a country of four hundred million people who went through the crisis of a complete political transformation four years ago with a minimum of bloodshed. It is a country that under Yuan Shih-kai is well administered and prosperous, but whose present prosperity is but a tithe of its possibilities for the future.

If you are interested in knowing how this nation, teeming with undeveloped resources and hurrying with an enthusiasm unduplicated in history toward complete modernization along Western lines, is eager to enlist American capital for industrial development, tell your newsdealer now to save your copy Sunday.
